To Create an Overdrive Account

1. When using the mobile App, you can sign up for an Overdrive account, but it is not necessary. Because Overdrive is associated with different libraries, a personal e-mail address is recommended for long-term use. It is possible for your entire family to use the same Overdrive Account and tie it to different library users and accounts.
2. Overdrive will send a verification e-mail. Be sure to access your e-mail and click on the link provided before continuing.
3. Sign in to your Overdrive Account.
